

John Showalter

Business Development Associate

VESTA Settlements

John Showalter is part of Vesta Settlement's business development team. He is passionate about all things technology and strives to educate Realtors and assist them in understand and utilizing technology to help grow their businesses as well as offer great settlement service. He is currently a member of the board of directors, Technology committee, and YPN committee, and active among the real estate community.