

Mark Worrilow
Managing Broker
Fathom Realty

Mark is an experienced and professional instructor with effective communication skills and the ability to connect with REALTORS® from the newly licensed to the most seasoned practitioner. Mark began his career as an instructor while serving in the Navy teaching courses both in leadership and warfare subjects. He carried his teaching methods out of the military and soon became a USSF certified referee instructor. As a REALTOR® Mark holds his ABR and SFR designations and teaches pre-licensing classes and other professional development classes as well as being a certified Fair Housing, REALTOR® Code of Ethics and RSA instructor.

Mark served as the Education Committee Chair from 2004 – 2010 and Instructor of the Year for 2010 at the Prince William Association. A graduate of the US Naval Academy, Mark retired in 1997 and immediately commenced a second career, this time in real estate. He is the District Director of Fathom Realty.
