NVAR/DAAR Commercial and Residential Bus Tour

Join NVAR and DAAR to learn about the booming real estate market around Metro stations in Arlington, Fairfax and Loudoun Counties. Hear from developers, executives and public officials about the projects that are shaping the future of Northern Virginia.

The bus tour will follow the Silver-Line Metro corridor with exclusive insight from local experts about the planned, approved and ongoing residential and commercial development in our region. Beginning with a breakfast kick-off in Reston, the tour will end at Loudoun Station with lunch and a presentation from Loudoun County Economic Development before returning by bus to Reston.
