Seller waives any and all rights, claims and causes of actions against them and holds them harmless for any property damage or personal injury arising from the use or access to

- further to seek appropriate professional advice concerning, but not limited to, the condition of Property or tax and insurance matters.
- B. Service Provider Referrals. Broker or one of Broker's sales associates may refer a service provider to assist Seller in this transaction. This referral is not an endorsement, guarantee or warranty as to the quality, cost and/or timeliness of the services to be provided. Seller is advised to independently investigate all options for service providers and consider whether any service provider will work effectively with Seller. Seller is free to reject any referred service provider for any or no reason.
- C. Wire Fraud. Seller should never transmit nonpublic personal information, such as credit or debit card, bank account or routing numbers, by email or other unsecured electronic communication. There are numerous e-mail phishing scams that involve fraudulent requests to wire funds in conjunction with a real estate transaction. If Seller receives any electronic communication directing the transfer of funds or to provide nonpublic personal information, even if that electronic communication appears to be from a representative of Broker, do not respond. Such requests, even if they may otherwise appear to be from Broker, could be part of a scheme to defraud Seller by misdirecting the transfer of sale proceeds or using Seller's identity to commit a crime. If Seller should receive wiring instructions via electronic means that appear to be from a legitimate source involved in Seller's real estate transaction, Seller should verify - using contact information other than that provided in the communication - that the instructions were sent by an actual representative of the requesting company. Conversely, if Seller has provided wiring instructions to a third party, it is important to confirm with the representative of said company that the wire instructions are not to be substituted without Seller's verified written consent. When wiring funds, never rely exclusively on an e-mail, fax or text communication.
- D. Subsequent Offers After Contract Acceptance. After a sales contract has been ratified on Property, Broker recommends Seller obtain the advice of legal counsel prior to acceptance of any subsequent offer.
- E. Governing Law. The laws of Virginia shall govern the validity, interpretation, and enforcement of this Agreement.
- F. Binding Agreement. This Agreement will be binding upon the parties, and each of their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns. The provisions hereof will survive the sale of Property and will not be merged therein. This Agreement, unless amended in writing by the parties, contains the final and entire agreement and the parties will not be bound by any terms, conditions, oral statements, warranties or representations not herein contained.
- 27. ATTORNEYS' FEES. If any Party breaches this Agreement and a non-breaching Party retains legal counsel to enforce its rights hereunder, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to recover against the breaching Party, in addition to any other damages recoverable against any breaching Party, all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in enforcing its rights under this Agreement, whether or not suit is filed, and in obtaining, enforcing and/or defending any judgment related thereto. Should any tribunal of competent jurisdiction determine that more than one Party to the dispute has breached this Agreement, then all such breaching Parties shall bear their own costs. However, if the tribunal determines that one or more of the Parties is a "Substantially Prevailing Party," any such Substantially Prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover from any of the breaching Parties, in addition to any other damages recoverable against any breaching Party, all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in enforcing its rights under this Agreement, whether or not suit is filed, and in
