

Beth Fischel, Professional Development and Standards Director, Dulles Area Association of REALTORS®

Beth is responsible for the Professional Development and Professional Standards programs and acts as liaison to the Grievance, Professional Standards and Education Committees.

Prior to this appointment, Beth served as the Membership Services Manager overseeing new member education programs, licensee and REALTOR® membership compliance, member service center administration, community service and awards programs. She is a certified REALTORS® Property Resource (RPR) trainer and expert in NAR's association management system RAMCO.

Prior to joining DAAR, she worked in various management and consultant roles for Inter-Company Marketing Group and Conference Call USA. She also served as an Economist for the United States Department of Agriculture and a paralegal with Pepper and Corrazini in Washington, DC.

Beth earned her Bachelor of Arts in Economics at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

She is a longtime foster volunteer for Friends of Homeless Animals (FOHA), a non-profit 501c3 no-kill shelter that focuses on the rescue and placement of homeless dogs and cats in the Northern Virginia and Washington DC area. She also served as a volunteer age group coordinator for Loudoun Soccer for many years.
