

Requirements for Serving on the DAAR Board of Directors

- Board members must, at the time of election, be members of DAAR and have been REALTORS® (or Affiliate if Affiliate seat is open) for at least 2 years.
- Board members shall assist DAAR in expanding its membership base through their influence and pride in the Association.
- Board members shall have the time and inclination to actively support DAAR through their participation at BOD meetings, as well as endeavoring to attend as many as possible membership events.
- Board meetings are generally held on Thursday's every other month. Special meetings or work sessions may also be called. Regular attendance at these meetings is necessary to maintain continuity of information and decision making. A second absence will qualify as your resignation from the Board.
- Board members are encouraged to contribute a minimum of $99 to RPAC each year. RPAC is an important facet of our organization and your support as an officer or director is fundamental to the example that officers, and directors demonstrate to the membership.
- Board members are encouraged to attend, at their own expense, the VAR Legislative Conference in February in Richmond, and the VAR Convention. Certain officers are reimbursed for their expenses.
- By policy, Board members are required to attend Leadership Training, Governance Training, Professional Standards Training, and DEI Training every year following the time of their election.
- Board members shall be willing to serve on short term Task Forces appointed by the Chairman when so requested.
